

Advent Anagram Answer

T is for TALENT... Woodcarving at Bedlington Heritage Fair in Northumberland: just one example of skills showcased at #HODS (credit: Gilbert Johnston) <http://twitpic.com/7q6t9n>

H is for HIDDEN GEMS... Golden Interior of St Vincent works, nestled in the centre of Bristol <http://twitpic.com/7t3tji>

E is for EXPERIENCE... Visitors inside an 'engineering masterpiece' beneath Liverpool (credit: Mersey Tunnels) <http://twitpic.com/7mzjhz>

H is for HAVING FUN... Visitor gets to grips with vintage motorbike in Wolverhampton (credit: Steve Corbett) <http://twitpic.com/7p6i6p>

O is for ORIGINS... Skull and bones: Sharing archeological findings in Canterbury (credit: Canterbury City Council) <http://twitpic.com/7poi2g>

L is for LEARNING... Wide-eyed curiosity in Hexham <http://twitpic.com/7qp43a>

L is for LOCAL... Visitor views MyHouseMyStreet participant list in Brighton (credit: Nigel Corrie) <http://twitpic.com/7tiemh>

Y is for YOUNG AND OLD... Young family board vintage bus in Hull (credit: Anthony Hatfield) <http://twitpic.com/7vrux1>

A is for AWE INSPIRING... Visitors breathe in surroundings of church in Hull (credit: Anthony Hatfield) <http://twitpic.com/7vclm9>

N is for NETWORKING and making new friends. Viking and visitor pause for a chat (credit: Canterbury City Council) <http://twitpic.com/7vru40>

D is for DIVERSITY... Visitors watch Godiva sisters' celebration in Coventry (credit: Ben Locker) <http://twitpic.com/7opmao>

T is for TEA AND CAKE Stockport ladies do both (credit: Stockport MBC)

<http://twitpic.com/7sood3>

H is for HARD WORK... Shovelling coal at Bancroft Mill, Barnoldswick (credit: Zumamedia)

<http://twitpic.com/7s9dhs>

E is for EUROPEAN CONNECTIONS... Find out more on the #HODS blog <http://ow.ly/81img>

<http://twitpic.com/7txyps>

I is for IMAGINATION... Young visitor crowned queen for a day! (credit: Alun Bull)

<http://twitpic.com/7mipi9>

V is for VIEWS... The Ruin, framed against its breath-taking backdrop: North Yorkshire

(credit: The Landmark Trust) <http://twitpic.com/7vefgi>

Y is for YOU... Organisers, volunteers and visitors: the centre of #HODS (credit: Alan Brigham) <http://twitpic.com/7vs4ge>