

Get involved!

6-9 Sept 2012

heritage open days

Over 45,000 local people took part in Heritage Open Days last year, opening up and staging 4,421 places and activities. Together they attracted some 1.7 million visitors.

Why not get involved too? By joining Heritage Open Days, you won't be alone. The Heritage Open Days team is here to help you.

What support do we give you?

- We register your property or event.
- We will list your event in our national online directory.
- We arrange free public liability insurance.
- You are invited to meet fellow organisers at our local networking events.
- Our website and team blog provide you with case studies, practical tips and advice on making your Heritage Open Days event a success with the widest possible audience.
- You will receive free posters and promotional templates to advertise your activities.
- Our national marketing, press and social media campaign will back up your local promotional activities.

What next?

If you would like to take part in Heritage Open Days 2012 (6-9 September), you need to register with the National Heritage Open Days Partnership.

Those who have participated in the past will automatically receive the registration mail in March. If you have never taken part before, please request a registration pack from the Heritage Open Days team by calling 020 7553 9290 or emailing info@heritageopendays.org.uk

If you prefer to register online, please visit: www.heritageopendays.org.uk/organisers. This site will also give you access to a wide range of useful documents and advice.

Closing dates for registration

To make full use of our support, please submit your registration form by 1 May 2012. Early submissions will be the first to be posted on our online directory in July. Registration is still possible until 1 August but you may not be able to benefit from our full support package.

We look forward to working with you!
