

← Back to results

Danbury Delights - cooking at the palace gatehouse (2021)

Essex,

Available anytime Pre-booking not required

Exploring the edible connections between a Knight buried in St John the Baptist Church in Danbury, the local mills and an infamous incident at an horticultural show.

When

Where

Booking

Access

More info

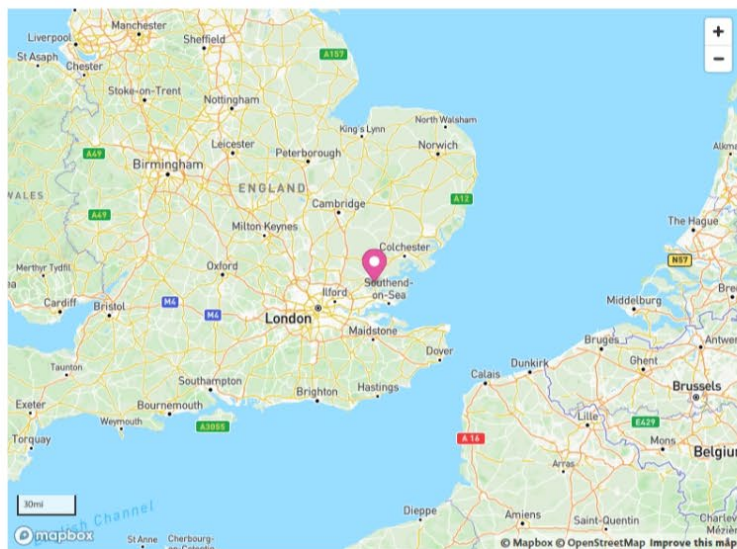

An Aga cooking session producing mushroom ketchup and unlocking the mystery of the "pickled knight". Followed by baking traditional style loaves using locally sourced flour as well as reviewing the history of mills in Danbury and the surrounding area. Finally the big reveal as to why this innocent looking Strawberry cake caused such an uproar at the local horticultural show and is known forever after as "The Strawberry Cake with Dirt"

Timings

Available anytime

Locations

Essex,

Directions:

Contact on day: Alan Pamphilon 07779 931401

Telephone number: Alan Pamphilon 07779 931401

Booking information

Pre-booking requirement: Pre-booking not required

Check out our online channels

History

← Back to results

Features

Organised by

Danbury Society

Print this page

